Employment Pipeline

“Transforming
Lives through Employment”

Transforming lives

Jobs, Business, Community. Keep it local.

As a Job Seeker how can we help you?

- Provide support services to qualifying DSHS recipients in search of employment.
- Connect DSHS recipients in search of employment to community resources.
- Match your skills to employer needs.
- Provide pre- and post-employment support.
- Help you overcome challenges to employment, including connection to other DSHS programs.
- Refer you to training opportunities.

As an Employer how can we help you?

- Provide you with a pool of pre-screened candidates who are ready to work.
- Work with job seekers to overcome barriers.
- Provide one year of post-employment support.

If you have a current DSHS case, we help by:

- Answering questions about your case;
- Updating your case;
- Providing additional resources you qualify for; and
- Completing reviews for continued benefits.

We help determine eligibility for:

- Basic Food benefits
- Cash assistance

We offer referrals to:

- The Basic Food Employment and Training (BFET) program
- Child care
- Child support
- Domestic violence help

If you are a participant in the Basic Food Employment and Training (BFET) program or in the WorkFirst program, you may be eligible for assistance with:

- Transportation
- Interview or work clothes
- Connection to low-cost housing
- Help paying your utility bills
